CLERK: Mr. President, your Enrolling Clerk reports that she did, on this day at 2:45, present to the Governor LB 781, 782 and 782A. Signed, Barbara Jackson, Enrolling Clerk.

Mr. President, motion on the desk. I move that LB 691 become law notwithstanding the objections of the Governor. Signed, Frank Lewis.

PRESIDENT: Senator Warner.

SENATOR WARNER: A point of order, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: Yes sir.

SENATOR WARNER: Before Senator Lewis starts, am I correct to assume that the order of possible vetoes will be what the agenda is, unless reversed by 25 votes?

PRESIDENT: Yes, this is the Speaker's.... I understand that. Isn't this your order, Mr. Speaker? Alright. The Speaker will advise us.

SPEAKER: Mr. President, members of the Legislature. This was my intent that we follow the veto overrides. The reason I have them in this order is because this is exactly the way they were on the agenda on March the 15th and 16th. I see the problem arising because we did have a problem this session of how the motions were submitted to the desk. I suppose we would follow the order that those motions were delivered to the desk. It is my intention, however, ... and maybe.... I know the problem has arisen because in this instance there may be some bills that are not selected for an override. Maybe someone has a bill early to the front, let's use the figure 972 - the third bill, maybe that individual wants to see how they're faring on the overrides. I don't know how we could really follow my agenda. I think it's worthwhile attempting to follow the agenda if we could. I'd like to.... Mr. Clerk.

PRESIDENT: Well will you.... As matters now stand the greer agenda is your order.
